Bespoke Qualification Development Service

Qualifying your staff will help to achieve all of these things. At PAA\VO-SET we understand that every business is different and that one size does not necessarily fit all.

Why develop a Bespoke Qualification?

Qualifications demonstrate an organisation's commitment to developing its employees, recognise the achievement of the individual and motivate others to achieve the same success.

Developing your own Bespoke Qualification:

- Ensures that it is fit for purpose and meets your individual requirements so your workforce gain the skills and knowledge essential for your business
- Offers flexibility around how you design the qualification
- Gives ownership of the qualification, which can be critical for successful implementation

Who is this for?

PAA\VO-SET's Bespoke Qualification Development Service will benefit employers, colleges and training providers and enable them to create new, bespoke and fit for purpose qualifications.
